

InterDisciplines

Journal of History and Sociology

Law and Historiography
Contributions to a New Cultural History of Law

02/2012

InterDisciplines

Journal of History and Sociology

Volume 3 - Issue 2

Law and Historiography

Contributions to a New Cultural History of Law

InterDisciplines

Journal of History and Sociology

Editorial Board

Alfons Bora (Bielefeld University)

Jörg Bergmann (Bielefeld University)

Thomas Welskopp (Bielefeld University)

Peter Jelavich (Johns Hopkins University Baltimore)

Kathleen Thelen (Massachusetts Institute of Technology)

InterDisciplines

Journal of History and Sociology

Volume 3 - Issue 1

Law and Historiography

Contributions to a New Cultural History of Law

Guest editors

Daniel Hedinger (Berlin)

Daniel Siemens (London)

© 2012 by Bielefeld Graduate School in History and Sociology (BGHS)

All rights reserved

Managing editor: Andrea Adams, BGHS

Copy Editor: Laura Radosh

Cover picture: Jean-Baptiste Mauzaisse: Napoleon I., crowned by the Allegory of Time, writes the Code Civil (Photo: akg-images / Laurent Lecat)

Coverdesign: Thomas Abel

Layout: Katrin Kämpf

This publication was made possible by financial support from the German Research Foundation - Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft (DFG)

www.inter-disciplines.org

www.uni-bielefeld.de/bghs

ISSN 2191-6721

Contents

Daniel Hedinger & Daniel Siemens

What's the problem with law in history? An introduction.....6

Daniel Siemens

Towards a New Cultural History of Law.....18

Henning Grunwald

Justice as »performance«? The historiography of legal procedure and political criminal justice in Weimar Germany.....46

Miloš Vec

Universalization, Particularization, and Discrimination. European Perspectives on a Cultural History of 19th century International Law...79

Stefan B. Kirmse

»Law and Society« in imperial Russia.....103

Daniel Hedinger

Globalization of legal cultures in the 19th century. Criminal trials, gender, and the public in Meiji Japan.....135

Ulrike Schulz

Economic perspectives on the history of law:
Property rights in business history.....166

Axel C. Hiintelmann

Priority, Property, and Trust. Patent law and pharmaceuticals in the German Empire.....194