

InterDisciplines

Journal of History and Sociology

The Politics of Control and Resistance

02/2013

InterDisciplines

Journal of History and Sociology

Volume 4 - Issue 2

The Politics of Control and Resistance

InterDisciplines

Journal of History and Sociology

Editorial Board

Alfons Bora (Bielefeld University)

Jörg Bergmann (Bielefeld University)

Thomas Welskopp (Bielefeld University)

Peter Jelavich (Johns Hopkins University Baltimore)

Kathleen Thelen (Massachusetts Institute of Technology)

InterDisciplines

Journal of History and Sociology

Volume 4 - Issue 2

The politics of control and resistance

Guest editors

Andrea Kretschmann (Bielefeld)

and Olga Galanova (Bielefeld)

© 2013 by Bielefeld Graduate School in History and Sociology (BGHS)

All rights reserved

Managing editor: Andrea Adams (BGHS)

Editorial assistant: Franziska Krüger (BGHS)

Copy editor: Laura Radosh

Layout: Anne C. Ware

Cover picture by Robert Voit

Coverdesign: deterringdesign GmbH Bielefeld/Thomas Abel

www.inter-disciplines.org

www.uni-bielefeld.de/bghs

ISSN 2191-6721

This publication was made possible by financial support from the German Research Foundation - Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft (DFG)

Contents

Andrea Kretschmann in collaboration with Olga Galanova

Facets of control:
Criminal justice regimes in analysis. Introduction..... 7

Matthias Rothe

Sovereignty unchained and chained:
Theorizing control through »sovereignty« 27

Tiffany Bergin

Markets for suspicion:
Assessing cost-benefit analysis in criminal justice..... 59

Klaus Weinbauer

From social control to urban control?
Urban protests, policing, and localization in Germany and England
(1960s to 1980s) 85

Andreas Glaeser

Theorizing modern politics and its ironies of control through the case of East German state socialism 119

